

For Immediate Release:
January 20, 2010

Media Advisory

Contact: Lisa Crites
Wuesthoff Health System
Associate Director/Media Strategy
(321)636-2211, ext. 1505
lisa.crites@wuesthoff.org

George F. Torres, MD, joins Brevard Pulmonary Specialists

Brevard County, FL (January 20, 2010) George F. Torres, MD, board-certified pulmonologist recently joined Brevard Pulmonary Specialists, PA, and a member of the Wuesthoff Family Physicians organization.

Dr. Torres comes to Brevard County from Nellis Air Force Base (AFB), Las Vegas, NV, where he served as the medical director for the Respiratory Care Teaching Program for more than three years. Previous to that directorship, Torres held several appointments at Mike O'Callaghan Federal Hospital, also located at Nellis AFB. While at that medical facility, Torres was the chair of the Special Care Council, chief of Pulmonary Element, and director of the Cardio-Pulmonary Department and Intensive Care Unit.

Dr. Torres received his medical degree from the Universidad Autonoma de Santo Domingo, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, in 1986. He then completed his post graduate work in medical education from Damas Hospital, Ponce, Puerto Rico, along with his Internal Medicine residency and Pulmonary Diseases Fellowship, also at Damas Hospital.

Dr. Torres is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, the American College of Chest Physicians, and also a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians. His professional medical memberships also include the American College of Physicians, and American Medical Association.

Brevard Pulmonary Specialists have four separate locations in the central and southern areas of Brevard County. For more information on Brevard Pulmonary Specialists, or to make an appointment with Dr. Torres, please call 321.631.5677.

###